Mhilaba

last week i received your letter. thank you for it. who typed it for you, you? some lovely, beautiful person, i bet!! it was a rare letter and, therefore, a rare occasion. a welcome occasion. to have your letter.

i still puzzle why you are working on eric. knew of him before your letter. an eccentric i first came across in "vogue" as it is in clothing that he gets recognition. i believe there is more to him. sensuous and penetrating. and without time. therefore reaching the essence of some worlds. i puzzle and am suprised and then am not suprised. i also have to confess i dont know who you are since you became a new yorker. i know you are you and more though! still, i dont know. no questions as i believe you have all rights to your beings.

Mhilaba! i am in maputo. this you know. i am in maputo because of beliefs i had. i no longer hold these and then i do. i see power corrupting beauty. i see man weak. i see man strong. i see right. and wrong. but, most importantly, i do not see people being let to be who they want to be. but then, time is a god, and people will be who they want to be. the
