

his lies the money was send back and held by Special branch at the S.A. Reserve bank.
His passport was cancelled and the money will be given back after the case is over.
I can't go on further with his excuses because I'll fill volumes. Well we are now fighting hard to get the money back even if it might end up going to the law.

Guest is to be blamed, because had he told us before hand how to send the money, I would actually have tried to phone you, and personally have brought the R1000 to you.

So, I wonder if you would be patient enough, to await for the money which would be sent as soon as we retrieve it. We would have long written, if it wasn't for the Post Office strikes.

Hoping to hear from you soon and I hope that my apology is accepted for the time being.

Yours faithfully,
Mrs Martha Kete.
